

Numbers are limited
so enrol now.

If you are seeking a career in the horticulture field, and are interested in being part of an active, creative group of people, and want to find out if you are eligible for entry into this FREE TOP/YT training programme ring Alli @ the Workcentre on 525 8099.

Other options include:
contacting your Case Manager at Work and Income New Zealand

or send an email to alli@gbwct.org.nz

*or contact
Peter Finlayson
525 9013
for more information about this course.*

Golden Bay Workcentre Trust
84 Commercial Street
Takaka 7110

The course is approved by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority under the provisions of the Education Act 1989, and the Golden Bay Workcentre Trust is accredited to teach it.

For more information contact
alli@gbwct.org.nz

Brochure designed and created by Mary Ann Tait

Tertiary Education Commission
Te Amorangi Mātauranga Matua

Landbased Skills 2010

An introduction to Practical Horticulture
19 April-24 September

Golden Bay Workcentre
84 Commercial Street
Takaka
Golden Bay

Phone: (03) 525 8099

Website:

<http://www.gbworkcentre.org.nz>

About the course

This course will run for 24 weeks.

Start date: 19 April 2010

Finish date: 24 September 2010

Interviews: Wed. 31 March 2010

Recess: 03/07/10-18/07/10

Hours of the course will be: 9am-3.30pm. The Course will run Monday-Thursday inclusive with Friday as own project day.

Venue:

The course will be based at three locations. The Golden Bay Workcentre Trust, the Golden Bay Community Organic Gardens, and Autumn Farm in Central Takaka.

Tutors:

The primary tutor on this course will be Peter Finlayson. Guest tutors will also present specialised programmes and content.

Peter has ten years experience delivering this course, and many years experience in this field.

Some things you will learn

- ⊗ Basic general gardening skills
- ⊗ Soil preparation, composting and planting techniques.
- ⊗ Propagation by seed, cuttings and division.
- ⊗ Pruning trees and shrubs.
- ⊗ Plant identification.
- ⊗ Landscape development.
- ⊗ Arboriculture.
- ⊗ Selection and maintenance of trees.
- ⊗ Knowledge of organic growing.
- ⊗ Working together for a better future.
- ⊗ Environmental awareness.

Horticulture as a career

Educational qualifications

This course will include:

- NZQA Unit Standards (Levels 1, 2 and 3)
- National Certificate in Horticulture Level 2

Skills for the future:

Next steps:

Pathways; CV; Skills list; further training and educational options.

Self Employment:

Management and Marketing:

Understanding the basics of starting your own business as a self-employed gardener, landscape contractor, or forester.

